Comparing the pursuit of EXCELLENCE
with the pursuit of PERFECTION

by M. Suzanne Renna, Ed.D.

One who pursues perfectionism...

- ... tries to do everything perfectly the first time around (no rough drafts).
- ... has the illusion that time is elastic.
- ... is afraid of making mistakes.
- ... fears that if something is missed, all is lost.
- ... feels anxious; feels like a failure when unattainable goals are not met; has a stressed, rigid style.
- ... sacrifices care of self; goes without food or sleep; falls into binge behaviors (all-or-nothing thinking).

One who pursues excellence...

- ... acknowledges limitations of time, energy, desire.
- ... makes wise choices.
- ... sees mistakes as opportunities for learning.
- ... is not afraid to take healthy risks.
- ... feels curious, playful, wise, resourceful; takes things in stride.
- ... takes care of body needs and listens to one's feelings.
